Bob Schoner and Carlos Zapata's upscaled "Gremlin", along with Aerotech CEO Gary Rosenfield. The Goblin is flying on a cluster of five Aerotech Mojave Green motors.

Gus Piepenburg's rocket (above) flying on a Preston Nobile "Dragonfyre" sparkie motor. Gary Kawabata's 6-inch "Cherry Bomb," (above right) flying an Aerotech M2100 Mojave Green motor.
